

THERMAX CONTROLS

Reliable Monitoring...

MARSHALLING BOX

GENERAL

A marshalling box is an electrical enclosure controlling device situated next to the transformer. This marshalling box is used to build and wire up all kinds of transformer protection accessories, such as winding and oil temperature indicators and other required components. These instruments potential connections are connected through multi-core cables to one of the incomer panel or the RTCC panel for remote monitoring.

INFORMATION FOR ORDERING MARSHALLING BOX:

1. OTI / WTI / Hybrid / Digital Model
2. No. of contacts for OTI & WTI
3. No. of terminals
4. Paint shade
5. Sheet Thickness
6. With/ Without Heater
7. Mounting Dimensions